Amendments to 2020 Sailing Instructions - B Red and Blue Fleets Committee Boat Starts Thursday and Saturday

Amendment 1.

The title of this document is amended to read 2020 Sailing Instructions - B - Red and Blue Fleets Committee Boat Starts Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

These renamed sailing instructions when published will contain all of the following amendments within the text.

Amendment 2.

B2. The course is amended to read

B2. The Course

Blue Fleet Course

The course will be sailed around fixed marks as shown on the chart “DBSC Racing Marks 2020”. The approximate positions are given in the “Yacht Racing Marks – Bearings 2020 ” table.

Note: Salthill will be a temporary mark laid only when required. It will be laid in the approximate position given in the “Yacht Racing marks – bearings” table. This mark will be an DBSC orange inflatable mark and might not display the mark name or letter.

2.2 Blue Fleets shall use the appropriate blue fleet course card.

Red Fleet Course:

This course may be made up of a mixture of temporary laid marks and/or Dublin Bay Fixed marks. The course will only be announced by VHF on CH 72

For clarity there will be no course cards or course boards for the Red Fleet Tuesday or Thursday.

This changes 2.1, 2.4, and 2.5 on previous SI's

Saturday Combined Blue and Red fleet Courses

2.2a All Starts and Finishes will be from a DBSC Committee vessel. It is intended but not definite that this may be Maclir

2.2b Course Card 1 Thursday Blue Fleet Courses shall be used.

2.3 Blue Fleet and combined Blue and Red Fleet Saturdays - All Marks to be Rounded or passed in the order as shown on Course card. (Amends DBSC SIs B 2.3)

2.4 Blue Fleet and combined Blue and Red Fleet Saturdays . Marks in Red to be rounded to Port, Marks in Green to be rounded to Starboard. (Amends DBSC SIs 2.4)

2.5 Blue Fleet and combined Blue and Red Fleet Saturdays.- A Letter A-R and a numeral to indicate the course to be sailed as per the appropriate course card will be displayed at least 3 minutes before that starting signal for the class. (Amends RRS 27.1).

2.5a If there is to be more than one round of the course a second numeral will be displayed in chalk on a Black Board in the vicinity of the course boards and may be called on VHF CH74. This is an additional clause.

2.6 For Cruiser 5 class with split divisions designated by the class numeral followed by an (a) or (b) (i.e. CR5a and CR5b) separate course numerals may be displayed. The numeral preceded by the course letter will indicate the course for boats sailing in the (a) division and the second and succeeding numeral indicates the course to be sailed by the (b) division. Should only one numeral be displayed all divisions shall sail the same course.

(The above amend the following B2.1, B2.2a, B2.3, B2.5, B2.5a)
